SOLSTICE DREAMING

Entering the Sacred Portal

The Divine Feminine teaches us the way of Winter Solstice. She wraps us in the folds of Her night skirt – and just like the hibernating bear, the dormant oak trees, the squirrels snuggled deep into their nests – She offers us a ceremony of deep rest and renewal.

Unlike most Winter Solstice celebrations that focus on welcoming back the light, Solstice Dreaming takes us into the silent night, leads us down to our very roots, down into the cave where we will be rocked by the Mother's heartbeat.

We go into the Sacred Dreamtime with Her to hear Her Wisdom, to receive Her vision of the coming year, and to listen to Her singing.

Stop being afraid of the dark! There are great treasures to be found there. Come and receive Her great blessing!
